ORDER

This matter is before the court on the oral motion of the parties for an extension of discovery and pretrial motion deadline. The motion was made during the arraignment on the Indictment on September 11, 2013. Cameron acknowledged the additional time needed for his motion would be excluded under the calculations under the Speedy Trial Act. The oral motion was granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The joint motion for an extension of time to complete discovery and file pretrial motions is granted. Discovery shall be completed on or before November 12, 2013. The parties shall have to on or before December 13, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order.

2. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., from September 11, 2013, through December 13, 2013, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 12th day of September, 2013.
